

Report of Assessment

Report of Assessment of the Family Law System in
Autauga County, Alabama United States

Assessment by Sample Report(Judicial officer,Attorney,Mediator,Psychologist,Social worker, family counselor, or therapist,Co-parenting educator,Parenting coordinator,Custody evaluator)

02/03/2011

1. This was assessment # 8 on this jurisdiction.

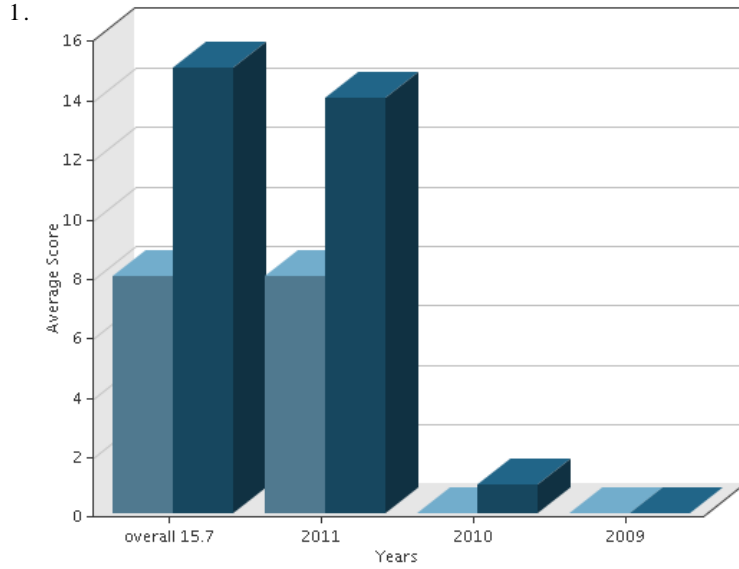

1. 2011 (8 assessments)
2. 2010 (0 assessments)
3. 2009 (0 assessments)

•The present Assessment yielded a score of 95 out of 100 (95/100).

• From highest score to lowest score, the present Assessment yielded the following scores in the 10 groups of measures.

1. Public Education on the System's Commitment to Cooperation (measures 2 - 28)
(12/12-100.0%)
2. Responsibly Confronting Domestic Violence and Ensuring Safety (measures 6 - 7)
(8/8-100.0%)
3. Educating Parents on the Requirements and Advantages of Safety and Cooperation in Family Cases (measures 8 - 11)
(16/16-100.0%)
4. Using Broad Cooperative Measures (measures 12 - 14)
(12/12-100.0%)
5. Avoiding Unnecessary Appeals to Court and Custody Evaluations (measures 15 - 17)
(12/12-100.0%)
6. Assisting Unrepresented Persons (measures 18 - 18)
(4/4-100.0%)
7. Making Improvement Immediate and Ongoing (measures 27 - 27)
(4/4-100.0%)
8. Submitting the System to Regular Review and Improvement (measures 24 - 26)
(11/12-91.7%)
9. Committing to Ongoing Professional Education (measures 19 - 21)
(10/12-83.3%)
10. Committing to Avoidance of Harm and to Professionals' Focus on Families, Children, and the Relationships They Depend On (measures 22 - 23)
(6/8-75.0%)

- The average scores for this jurisdiction are reflected in the following graph:
 Autauga County, Alabama United States
 Survey AssessFamilyLaw.org scores as of 02/03/2011 at 10:38:AM

- The following graphs show the spread of scores for assessments returned on this jurisdiction in past calendar years.

